

I do not support giving more influence to large corporations. The public has a right to see multiple viewpoints, which can only come from multiple companies owning the airwaves.